The Einhell TE-SG 18/10 Li Solo cordless sealing gun is a member of the flexible PXC family and suitable for 310 ml cartridges. While a slim design and Softgrip provide the basis for a firm hold during operation, the use of robust materials cater for durability even when regularly used. While the maximum dispensing force of this cartridge gun lies at up to 2000 N, its dispensing speed can be adapted by means of an adjusting wheel and a pressure switch to suit the different materials and quantities required from job to job. A reversing mechanism puts an end to material dripping out of the cartridge, a bright LED light provides optimum visibility of the work area. It comes without a battery or charger; these items are available separately.
